

CHICK

SPACE CENTER

LUNA
AIRCRAFT

The Chick Space Center is a leisure space vehicle inviting its guests to travel Chick's world of tales, animations films and exhibitions.

Destined to first set shop in airports, malls and theme parks, this venue is poised to expand its presence on the Moon and on Mars as the first outer-space recreational destination.

The Chick Space Center is a cultural and social experience featuring the artistic and entertaining content presented in its website www.chickspacecenter.com. There, one can enjoy to read "The tale of Chick", view the "Chick Space Center miniseries" and join the exhibition of spacecrafts imagined by visitors from all nations of planet Earth and from nearby celestial bodies too...

www.CHICKspacecenter.com

The Chick Space Center is a stand-alone venue planning franchising worldwide associated with the production of its animation film programs to offer monthly new episodes on the adventures of its genuine little aerospace engineer developing new space vehicles.

Also contributing to the new monthly content at the Chick Space Center is its exhibition program which showcases intuitive artworks by guests of all ages stored in its database accessible at its venues on Earth and on outer-space locations.

"Bringing the arts and fun across the cosmos!"

A recreational spacecraft inviting on its first floor children to enjoy the tale and cartoons of Chick's space odyssey and to discover on its second floor the wonderful artworks about spacecrafts imagined by children from around the world. While visiting one of our venues, sit at our cozy atelier and illustrate your own space vehicle for Chick to travel to the stars!
